Condition of temples

tl222. SHRI BANWARI LAL KANCHHAL: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

whether it is a fact that most of the temples protected by Archaeological Department are in deplorable condition;

whether Government would consider to make the protected temples revenue oriented and tourist centre after their renovation; whether Government proposes to seek help from private sector for renovation of these temples; and if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) No, Sir. Centrally protected temples of national importance are in a fairly good state of preservation. They are conserved, preserved and maintained as per conservation norms subject to availability of resources.

Entry to 116 centrally protected monuments, including temples that are not under worship, is ticketed. There is no proposal at present to levy any ticket or fee for entry to centrally protected temples under worship.

and (d) The National Culture Fund set up by the Ministry of Culture vide notification dated November 28, 1996 provides an opportunity for individuals, NGO's and Corporate Houses to participate in the upkeep and maintenance of monuments. It is an important initiative for forging public private partnership and mobilizing extra budgetary resources for the conservation of monuments.
